

THE SPEAKER

The Early Childhood Direction Center is proud to present:

Susan Cuoccio, M.S.Ed.

Ms. Cuoccio, earned a master's degree in special education, with a concentration in autism. She works as an Autism Consultant, Early Intervention Ongoing Service Coordinator, Parent Trainer, Adjunct professor and Special Education Teacher. In addition she has consulted for school districts and private schools and has presented various workshops for both parents and professionals

Workshop Development by:

Susan Cuoccio, Beacon Therapy, LLC

ECDC: The Right Direction

The ECDC provides information and confidential referrals that link families and their children to: infant and preschool programs and services; respite and recreation programs; support groups and counseling; medical services and financial support. The ECDC also provides ongoing community training programs to both parents and professionals.

Are you looking for a workshop to be conducted at your site for staff development or for your families?

Contact our office to find out more about tailoring a workshop to your organization's needs.

Queens Early Childhood Direction Center (ECDC)

Catherine Warkala, Coordinator;
Grant Recipient, NYS Education Department

81-15 164 St. Jamaica, NY 11432
Phone: (718) 215-1299

Fax: (718) 969-9149

The QUEENS EARLY CHILDHOOD
DIRECTION CENTER

PRESENTS

FREE WORKSHOPS

SPRING

2017

For all early childhood and preschool special education programs

Register early – space is limited!
Each participant will receive a Certificate of Completion at the end of each workshop attended*

WORKSHOPS FOR PROFESSIONALS

Working with SEIT and Related Service Providers-RESCHEDULED FROM MARCH*

Classrooms can become very crowded with related services providers from within and outside your school. Participants will be given a review of Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) including the continuum of services and how to work effectively with all adults in the classroom.

April 5, 2017 9:30-12:00

The Social-Emotional Development of the Young Child

Participants will learn about the normal sequence of social-emotional development and suggestions of activities to foster appropriate social-emotional development in the Early Childhood classroom.

June 5, 2017 9:30-11:30 AM

Who should attend: Teachers, paraprofessionals, clinicians, social workers and anyone who works with young children.

WORKSHOPS FOR PARENTS!

Getting Ready For Kindergarten

This workshop will provide parents with strategies and ideas to prepare for a happy and successful kindergarten experience.

May 17, 2017 10:00-12:00

Who should attend: Parents, guardians or family members

Special fliers that introduce workshops to parents will be made available by the ECDC

Workshops may be cancelled due to insufficient registration

FINDING THE WORKSHOPS

All workshops for Spring 2017 will be held at:

Queens Centers for Progress
Natalie Katz Rogers Training and Treatment Center

81-15 164 Street
Jamaica, NY 11432

Directions to this site are available in this mailing or by calling the Queens Early Childhood Direction Center.

TO REGISTER

Call 718 215-1299

The Queens Early Childhood
Direction Center (ECDC)

Website: www.ecdcqueens.org